As of yesterday afternoon, Marietta said she wanted each division to do their own presentation according to Debra and Marion.

Marietta, Catherine, Dan:

The final aldicarb slides are on their way to the RD/IO this afternoon, but I also wanted to let you know that the HED presenter(s) will not be available for the currently scheduled Alex briefing on aldicarb for Wednesday, November 25th. All presenters from the Divisions are available on Monday (11/23/20) and presumably for the afternoon of Tuesday (11/24/20), so it may be prudent to ask the AA for a potential rescheduling for earlier in the week, if feasible.

Also, I wanted to circle back and ask if you and the RD/IO would prefer to see the slides before we also send them out as part of the meeting invitation for the DD briefing tomorrow. Let me know if you have any preferences on this particular item, as well.

Best regards,

Marion J.
